Burlington Bowling Initiative

The Burlington Bowling Initiative was created to help assist bowlers in the Burlington Area with their bowling needs. Our interests include bowling instruction, developing new bowlers, retaining bowlers, providing scholarship information to bowlers, and help bowlers with equipment issues.

The main propose of this program is to help youth bowlers. Whether it is to obtain equipment thru donations or create a scholarship programs.

The Burlington Bowling Initiative will be managed by Charles J. Budzyn and Christopher Braun. The audit committee will act as an oversight of the program.

Any equipment that is purchased thru this program will be property of the Burlington Area USBC and will be marked clearly with the association name when feasible.
